ANERRAND OF MERCY

Sailing of the Flour-Laden Steamer Indiana,

WITH FOOD FOR STARVING RUSSIANS.

Five Million Pounds of Flour, Besides Large Quantities of Provisions, Canned Goods, Etc.—Philadelphia's Contribution.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 22.—Thousands of people gathered at the docks of the International Navigation Co. at Washington avenue wharf, on the Delaware river yesterday afternoon to witness the departure of the steamer Indiana, laden with Philadelphia's bounteous contribution of flour and provisions for the famine-stricken Russians, and to enjoy the ceremonies arranged as a parting God-speed and safe-delivery to the ship on her grand voyage of mercy. The loading of the vessel was completed yesterday morning and the steamer was sailed by one of the ship's officers, that she Indiana could carry without sinking. Nearly 5,000,000 pounds of flour is stowed away in her hold in addition to large quantities of provisions, canned goods, etc.

As the people gathered for the ceremonies in honor of her departure the Indiana lay at the wharf with her masts and rigging almost bare, and the deck was covered with the bodies of the poor. From the bow the Union and Red Cross flags flew from the foremast, and from the mainmast the American flag stood out to the breeze. The exercises were interesting and enthusiastic.

It was the first intention to hold the ceremonies on the steamer's deck, but the wind was so strong and the sailing vessel so abandoned, and the exercises took place in the enclosed pier. Notwithstanding that hundreds of people were admitted to this and the adjoining pier, there were fully 30,000 men, women and children congregated on the outside. They came in droves, and continued arriving from all sections for the benefit of the poor. The Indiana had sailed and the steamer was on her way to the Delaware breaker.

The ceremonies opened with the Russian national hymn by the First regiment band. This followed addresses by Right Rev. O. W. Whittaker, of the Protestant Episcopal church, and Rev. L. W. Ward, of the Baptist church, after which the Rev. Mr. L. C. Phelps, of the United Singers of Philadelphia, sang.

Addressess were then delivered by Archbishop Bryan of the Roman Catholic church; Rev. Chase Wood, of the Presbyterian church; Bishop Cyrus D. Foss, of the Methodist church; Rev. Morris Jaffray, of the Jewish church, and Rev. Joseph Way, of the Unitarian church.

In between the speeches instrumental and vocal music was rendered, and the exercises closed with the singing of "Foreword" by the United Singers.

The signal of warning was then sounded by the steam whistle of the Indiana. The guests were landed, the ropes were cast off, and at 8:30 p. m. the ship moved slowly out into the river. The exercises closed up the vessel with its hymns. The ship was dipped and the whistles of all the craft which crowded the river joined in one great, long "Good-bye, and God-speed."

Capt. Sargent, in command of the Indiana, expects to reach the destination, Libau, Russia, on the Baltic sea, on March 15.

One of the Indiana for the voyage is given to the citizens committee free of charge by the International Navigation Co., the coal for her use on the trip, about 800 tons was donated by a coal company of this city. The Indiana's cargo is insured for $50,000 in the insurance company of North America, the company paying the premium of $900. None of the members of the committee sailed on the Indiana. The representatives selected by the committee to look after the distribution of the cargo, Messrs. R. Blanckenburg and A. J. Drexel, Jr., will take a steamer to Liverpool, and thence go by rail to St. Petersburg. They will there confer with United States Minister Smith, and then go to Libau, expecting to reach there a few days earlier than the Indiana.

THE MICHIGAN CLUB BANQUET.

Detroit, the Scene of a Large and Entertaining Republican Gathering.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 23.—The annual banquet of the Michigan club last evening attracted a host of representatives of greater or less fame from this and adjoining states. While the democrats were making the most of Mr. Cleveland and Ann Arbor yesterday and getting ready to have a great time over him, the republicans were giving enthusiastic over Gov. MacKinley, Senator Dolph of Oregon; Senator Perkins of Kansas, and J. Sloane Feltus of New York.

During the afternoon a reception in honor of the distinguished people was held at Gen. Almon's house.

Gov. MacKinley was interviewed by the half-Cleveland situation in New York. He said: "Mr. Hill agrees to have it all his own way. I think he will have the state solidly." As to Hill's prospects of carrying the state at the general election, providing he gets the nomination, that will depend upon the action of the national convention.

Mr. Cleveland is nominated, his success in New York will depend upon the support of the Hillites. I do not think that either Mr. Hill or Mr. Cleveland can carry New York. I am satisfied that the republicans can carry that state. Grant, Gifford, and Harrison carried New York. Cleveland got the state by a scratch of 1,000 votes, but I believe it failed of adoption.

Rhode Island Prohibitionists.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Feb. 23.—The state prohibition convention was held yesterday.

George P. Stade was elected president.

Annual prohibition resolutions were adopted.

Alexander Willard of Woonsocket was nominated for governor.

A proposed woman suffrage plank failed of adoption.

Blaine carried it at the time and was counted out."

"When the doors of the Detroit club were opened at 6 o'clock the scene before those who entered was like a big fire for 1,000 guests, while as many more spectators were accommodated in the galleries. The hall had been beautifully decorated with the national colors and natural flowers, and when the banqueters arrived every available bit of space, both for participants in the feast and spectators, was occupied.

Gen. Russell A. Alger was toast master. When the menu had been disposed of Gen. Alger opened the proceedings with a speech, and was followed by Senator Dolph, of Oregon, and others.

Letters of regard were read from President Harrison, ex-President Hayes, Senators Sherman and Evarts, Alton W. Tongue and the governors of most of the republican states.

A PRIESTLY CHAMPION.

Father McDonough Enters the Lists in Behalf of Mrs. Montague.

BIRMINGHAM, Feb. 23.—A decided scene took place from General Powderly, who is in this city in attendance upon the national conference of industrial associations, said yesterday in answer to a question from a reporter:

"What do you expect to be the definite outcome of this convention?" he said. "Well, sir, if I were to undertake to answer that question as it should be answered I would talk to you all day. I expect one result to be the organization of a third party beyond all question, a party upon whose platform the various elements represented here can unite and work at the coming election, so that the nation in its deliberations can be more anxious to have all the states to vote, namely, especially that portion of the human family which is honored by American citizenship, is subjected by the rule, local and national, of the two great parties who have hitherto divided the votes and the patronage of the country."

Whether they can agree upon a plan which will be effective, whether they can agree upon a plan which is conflicting interests of the various organizations making up the component elements of the great convention; whether they can unite upon leaders of sufficient personal force and magnetism to hold these elements together; whether, in fact, the meeting is to be big with results of a lasting and beneficial nature, or rather to be adjourned and forgotten, remains for the future to determine."

Democratic State Convention.

The state Democratic committee met at the Sherman hotel in Chicago yesterday for the purpose of fixing a date for the next convention. There was practically a full representation, and after a discussion upon the merits of various dates, which lasted only about thirty minutes, it was decided to hold the next convention at Springfield, Wednesday, April 27.

It was also decided that the convention should be of two days' duration.

The committee then adjourned to meet in Springfield on the Tuesday preceding the convention.

TUESDAY EVE, FEB. 23, 1892.

The street car men in Indianapolis have again struck. Their grievance is alleged to be the refusal of the company to restate all the men who were cut during the former strike and a failure to increase wages.

The great majority of so-called cures do little more than impair the digestive functions and create boils. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral on the contrary, while it cures the cough, does not interfere with the functions of either the stomach or liver.

A. W. SMITH, a well known drummer for Woodbridge & Co., of New York, died at the Windsor Hotel in Bloomington yesterday morning, under peculiar and circumstances. He arrived at the hotel last Thursday with the grip and a malignant pestilence on his finger and his death was due to blood poisoning. He leaves a wife and child in Rome, N. Y.

The meeting at the Christian Church grows in interest. A fair audience greeted the speaker last night. Mr. Molson presented a most vigorous and arousing sermon. Some society fad at Pittsfield was handled without gloves. His central thought was, self-delusion for the good of others. Self indulgence is the form of human life. He defined a saloon to be "A bar with spittoons on one side, and greed on the other." Come and hear him if you are at all interested in fitting human life to a higher place. Services to-night at 7:30. Subject to-night, "Some Views of Life."
